Welcome, Visitors!

If you have been away for a while or are returning to "take another look" at the Catholic Faith on this great feast of Easter, please know that we are delighted to have you with us! We hope you will return often enough to develop a real feeling of belonging. May you experience today and in the coming year the grace of the Risen Christ, the hope for new life that He brings, and the love of His disciples who journey together in the power of His Holy Spirit! To learn more about St. Rose, please join us at our Newcomers Orientation, offered on the second Sunday of each month, except in May (not held due to Mother's Day). Our next session is NEXT SUNDAY, APRIL 8, at 12:00pm (in Spanish) and 12:15pm (in English), in the Duggan Room on the lower level of the Church. We hope to see you there!

WORDS FROM OUR PASTOR / PALABRAS DE NUESTRO PASTOR

Jesus' followers and friends knew the joy of Easter only after the defeat of Good Friday. They really thought He was dead, that they would never see Him again. All their hopes and dreams of a new age were shattered and buried with Him. The stone was rolled into place. The tomb was closed. In their minds it was all over. It was the end of Jesus with all His stories and promises of a new way to live life. Yes, they were disheartened, discouraged and filled with despair. Who wouldn't be?

Early in the morning, the Apostles had the greatest surprise of their lives. The stone had been rolled back and the tomb was empty! It was a situation that Mary could not face alone, so she ran back to tell Peter and John what she had seen. They didn't understand what she was talking about, so they had to go to see. Peter entered in amazement and wonder, but John saw and believed. He was the first of many to understand and to believe. He experienced the Risen Lord! Love gave him eyes to read the signs and the faith to understand. It is only with love that we are able to grasp the truth and come to believe. No amount of rational proof can convince us of this unbelievable good news. The promise of Easter is that all who believe in Him will have everlasting life.

The events of that first Easter morning are believed by millions of people. They are believed most fervently, even though the event itself was never witnessed. They have experienced the Risen Lord in their lives and He still lives on in all those who believe.

Whatever brings you here this day - your deep faith in the Risen Christ, the demands made upon you by your family or friends, or that vague yearning down deep inside you that something in Jesus' story has a lasting meaning for you - all are parts of the great surprise that is the real and continuous presence of God in our lives.

There is more to the Easter story. The world must know about the goodness of our God, that God cares for all that has been created. The world must know about the value and dignity of each human life, because God dwells in each of us. They must know that we believe in a God of life, not death; a God of compassion and mercy, not a God who ignores pain and suffering; a God of forgiveness, not revenge; a God of peace, not war; a God of love, not hatred. They must know the Risen Lord in their lives. Who will tell them about our God, if it is not you or I? Our world is dying to hear some good news; we are those needed agents of hope and good news.

May these joyful days of Easter bring you new hope and new life.

Los seguidores y amigos de Jesús conocieron la alegría de la Pascua solo después de la aparente derrota del Viernes Santo. Realmente pensaron que Jesús estaba muerto, que nunca volverían a verlo. Todas sus esperanzas y sueños de una nueva vida fueron destrozados y enterrados con Él. La piedra fue rodada y la tumba estaba cerrada. En sus mentes, todo había terminado. Fue el final de Jesús con todas sus enseñanzas y promesas de una nueva forma de vivir la vida. Sí, estaban desanimados, muy tristes y llenos de desesperación. ¿Quién no lo estaría?

Temprano en la mañana, los Apóstoles tuvieron la mayor sorpresa de sus vidas. ¡La piedra había sido retirada y la tumba estaba vacía! Era una situación que María no podía enfrentar sola, así que corrió a contarle a Pedro y a Juan lo que había visto. No entendieron de lo que ella estaba hablando, así que tuvieron que ir a ver por sí mismos. Pedro entró asombrado y maravillado, pero fue Juan quien vio y creyó. Él fue el primero de muchos en entender y creer. ¡Él experimentó al Señor Resucitado! El amor le dio ojos para leer las señales y la fe para entender. Sólo con amor podemos comprender la verdad y llegar a creer. No importa cuánta cantidad de pruebas racionales tengamos, ellas no pueden convencernos de estas increíbles buenas noticias porque se basan sólo en la fe y no en la evidencia. La promesa de la Pascua es que todos los que creen en Él tendrán vida eterna.

Los eventos de esa primera mañana de Pascua son creídos hoy día por "billones" de personas. Estos eventos son creídos con gran fervor aun cuando el evento de la Resurrección nunca fue presenciado. Los creyentes han experimentado al Señor Resucitado en sus vidas y Quien vive en todos los que creen.

Sea lo que te traiga aquí hoy - tu profunda fe en Cristo resucitado, las demandas que te hacen tu familia o amigos, o ese anhelo vago dentro de ti de que algo en la historia de Jesús tiene un significado duradero para ti - todo ello es parte de la gran sorpresa que es la presencia real y continua de Dios en nuestras vidas.

Pero la historia de Pascua tiene todavía más significado. El mundo debe saber sobre la bondad de nuestro Dios, que Dios se preocupa por todo lo que ha sido creado. El mundo debe conocer el valor y la dignidad de cada vida humana porque Dios habita en cada uno de nosotros. Deben saber que creemos en un Dios de vida, no de muerte; un Dios de compasión y misericordia, no un Dios que ignora el dolor y el sufrimiento; un Dios de perdón, no de venganza; un Dios de paz, no de Guerra; un Dios de amor, no odio. También los que no conocen a Dios deben conocer al Señor resucitado en sus vidas. ¿Quién les contará sobre nuestro Dios si no somos tú o yo? Nuestro mundo se está muriendo por escuchar buenas noticias; nosotros somos los agentes necesarios de la esperanza y las buenas nuevas De Dios.

Que estos alegres días de Pascua nos traigan nuevas esperanzas y una nueva vida.

Q & A WITH FR. JUSTIN

Email your questions to:
fatherjustin@strose.com

QUESTION: What does it mean to say that Jesus rose from the dead?

ANSWER: When we speak of Jesus rising from the dead, i.e. of his resurrection, we often ask: What does this mean and why is it important? Throughout his life on Earth, Jesus brought several people back from the dead, including his friend Lazarus. However, we do not use the word resurrection to describe these miracles. Instead, the Jesus' Resurrection is profoundly strange, unique, and captivating. The Resurrection forms the very heart of the Christian faith, upon which everything else rises and falls. As St. Paul says, "if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain and your faith is in vain." (1 Cor 15:14)

Pope Benedict XVI once remarked that "it must be acknowledged that if in Jesus' Resurrection we were dealing simply with the miracle of a resuscitated corpse, it would ultimately be of no concern to us. ... Jesus' Resurrection was about breaking out into an entirely new form of life, into a life that is no longer subject to the law of dying and becoming, but lies beyond it – a life that opens up a new dimension of human existence." (Jesus of Nazareth, vol. III, pp. 243f.) Pope Benedict is emphasizing that Jesus moves, not only from death to life as would be the case in a merely biological resuscitation of a dead body, but from death to a new form of life – a life in which death, sin, and suffering are no longer part of the experience.

The Resurrection of Jesus shows us that God can put back together the pieces of a broken world and that the imperfection of the created order in which we live will be brought to perfection at the end of time. The fact that Jesus's Passion and Death (i.e. his suffering for the sake of love) leads to the resurrection reminds us that the trials that we face in this life allow us to cooperate in God's project of renewing creation. Finally, we realize that the resurrection is not a single event that occurred 2000 years ago, but that it is faintly echoed in our lives every time that we rise above sin by patiently confronting evil and suffering with patient love.
